

CALUM'S CABIN, ISLE OF BUTE

CLIENT – MR. AND MRS. SPIERS

New-build holiday home for Calum's Cabin charity providing free accommodation for children and their families suffering cancer or related illness. Initiated by Calum Spiers (age 12 years) who sadly died from a brain hemorrhage but wanted others to appreciate the benefits of visiting the Isle of Bute.

Designed to accommodate up to 8 people in a “non-institutional” style whilst providing full accessibility in a detached 1½ storey building in a beach-front location.
